Torrance to Try Conclusions With San Berdoe Nine

The Torrance Merchants baseball team will make a long hop to San Bernardino next Sunday to take on the West Coast Theatre outfit, which is said to dish up a snappy brand of ball.
Last Sunday the Merchants ran into a snag at C. C. M. O. field, and were defeated 8 to 11, by the Decimo Club.

Advance Night at Hawthorne Chapter, O. E. S., Tuesday evening was attended by Mrs. E. N. Tomkins, Mrs. A. Shiner, Mrs. W. C. Andrews, Mrs. L. L. Fordice and Mrs. A. W. Boynton.

DON'T FORGET FOLKS

The Dempsey-Tunney Fight Tonight

Is only one of many wonderful things you can bring right into your home this fall and winter. There's the World Series, the football games and daily programs of very great interest. Did you enjoy Col. Lindbergh's reception? And there's just one place to be sure of the very best radio service possible.

DEBRA RADIO COMPANY

Carson & Cravens, Torrance
Phone 73-J

An Interested Listener-in to Dempsey-Tunney Fight

Estelle Taylor, Mrs. Jack Dempsey, follows the battle as it is broadcast round by round.

Using the same Atwater Kent radio receiver and speaker that she used during the Dempsey-Sharkey fight, Estelle Taylor, famous motion picture star and the wife of Jack Dempsey will again follow her husband's attempt to stage a come back when he meets Tunney in Chicago tonight.

Although Miss Taylor was recuperating from a serious illness during the fight between her husband and Sharkey, she nevertheless followed the go through an Atwater Kent set installed in her room at the Virginia Hotel in Long Beach.

Many Torrance and Long Beach residents heard returns from the same fight by means of Atwater Kent receivers installed throughout the community by the DeBra Radio company of Torrance, and many more will listen in on the championship fight by the same means.
